EDUCATION HALL OF FAME
OFFICIAL NOMINATION FORM

This year marks the sixth class of inductees into the recently established Education Hall of Fame at Columbus State University's College of Education and Health Professions. Each year three new inductees will be honored by induction during the annual COEHP and Alumni Association Awards Banquet. Selections will be made by the Board of Directors based on nominations received from anyone interested in nominating an individual.

The criteria that will determine selection are:

- 1- nominees must have earned a degree or certification endorsement from CSU;
- 2- nominees must have been active in P-16 education for a minimum of 15 years;
- 3- nominees must have made extraordinary contributions to the profession as demonstrated by their nomination packet;
- 4- posthumous awards may be granted without fulfilling requirement number 2.

In addition to the nominator completing the information requested below, the nominee will be required to submit an application form accompanied by supporting letters.

The nomination deadline for this year is March 19, 2010 in order to be considered for induction at the banquet on May 4, 2010.
