

COEHP Awards

Excellence in Teaching (part-time faculty)

The Excellence in Teaching Award is presented to a CSU College of Education and Health Professions part-time faculty member who displays a high level of teaching excellence and undertakes activities that will enhance and expand the learning experiences for Columbus State University Students. Through this award, the COEHP emphasizes the role that its faculty members play in enhancing education, counseling, nursing, exercise and health sciences, and professional studies in Columbus, West Central Georgia, and beyond.
