

Enrollment Data Undergraduate and Graduate Program
By Race/ethnicity and Gender —Fall 2007

The following tables include: (1) Enrollment for Undergraduate and Graduate, Full-Time Part-Time Status, (2) Full-Time Undergraduate and Graduate Students by Gender, and (3) Part-Time Undergraduate and Graduate Students by Gender

Table 1

Summary of Enrollment for Undergraduate and Graduate, Full- and Part-Time Status

Table 2

Summary of Full-Time Undergraduate and Graduate Students by Gender

Table 3

Summary of Part-Time Undergraduate and Graduate Students by Gender

2007 Summary of Enrollment Totals for Full-Time and Part-Time Status

The total enrollment (full-time and part-time students) for undergraduate and graduate programs is 1,388 students. The undergraduate program accounts for 75.5% of the College of Education's total enrollment.

Table 1

| Graduate and Undergraduate Programs- 2007 Professional Education Data System (PEDS) | Full-TimeEnrollment | Part-TimeEnrollment | Total        |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------|--------------|
| Undergraduate                                                                           | 765 (72.9%)             | 283 (27.0%)             | 1048 (75.5%) |
| Graduate                                                                                | 160 (47.0%)             | 180 (52.9%)             | 340 (24.4%)  |
| Total                                                                                   | 925 (66.6%)             | 463 (33.3%)             | 1,388        |

2007 Summary of Full-Time Undergraduate and Graduate Students by Gender

The total enrollment for full-time students in the undergraduate and graduate programs is 925. The undergraduate program accounts for 82.7% of the College of Education's total full-time enrollment. In addition, the female population accounts for 73.8% of the undergraduate enrollment and 71.2% of the graduate enrollment.

Table 2

| Graduate and Undergraduate Programs- 2007 Professional Education Data System (PEDS) | MaleFull-Time | FemaleFull-Time | Total       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------|-------------|
| Undergraduate                                                                           | 200 (26.1%)       | 565 (73.8%)         | 765 (82.7%) |
| Graduate                                                                                | 46 (28.7%)        | 114 (71.2%)         | 160 (17.2%) |
| Total                                                                                   | 246 (26.5%)       | 679 (73.5%)         | 925         |

2007 Summary of Part-Time Undergraduate and Graduate Students by Gender

The total enrollment for part-time students in the undergraduate and graduate programs is 463. The undergraduate program accounts for 61.1% of the College of Education's total part-time enrollment. In addition, the female population accounts for 80.5% of the undergraduate enrollment and 71.6% of the graduate enrollment.

Table 3

| Graduate and Undergraduate Programs- 2007 Professional Education Data System (PEDS) | MalePart-Time | FemalePart-Time | Total       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------|-------------|
| Undergraduate                                                                           | 55 (19.4%)        | 228 (80.5%)         | 283 (61.1%) |
| Graduate                                                                                | 51 (28.3%)        | 129 (71.6%)         | 180 (38.8%) |
| Total                                                                                   | 106 (22.8%)       | 357 (77.1%)         | 463         |